Central London Processions & Protests

Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th June 2018

Safer WestEnd would like to inform you of the following processions and protests taking place this weekend.

Suffragettes Procession 10th June

The procession is a one-day commemoration of the centenary of The Representation of the People Act of 1918 which granted the first women in Britain the right to vote. Simultaneous events are taking place across the UK.

Summary:- Attendees will start forming up in Park Lane at 12:15

Procession will commence at 14:00

Procession will conclude at 18:00 in Abingdon Street

Anticipated numbers as of today in excess of 29,000

This is a peaceful event and will be proportionately Policed for safety and traffic management.

AL Quds March & Rally 10th June

There is an Al Quds demonstration beginning outside the Saudi Embassy on Curzon Street at 1500hrs with a screen erected and speeches made. At 1700hrs the march will move off toward Trafalgar Square via Piccadilly.

In brief, the demonstration is a celebration of the end of Ramadan and a protest of the treatment of Palestinians. Pro-Israeli counter-protestors are anticipated, as is a large right-wing presence. Total numbers are likely to be in excess of 1000.

Significant policing resources have been allocated to this event.

If you have any queries regarding the above, please get in touch.
