Demonstration Notice

OVERVIEW:

Reminiscent of the 1912 Bread and Roses protests which revolutionized workers' rights for women, the Women's March London will galvanise thousands for a Bread and Roses rally against Austerity and specifically the rise of economic oppression, violence against women, gender pay gap, racism, fascism and Brexit.

Protestors will join the #WeAreChange call for action.

Form up will be at Portland Place, with the rally taking place on Trafalgar Square.

Estimated attendance - 2,000 – 5,000 attendees.

Police supported road closures.
